Bella Cucina – Artful Food
Presents...

Bella Cucina Rosso and Bella Cucina
Bianco

Authentic Wines from Italy Expressing Purity of Fruit And A True Sense Of Terroir.

In the early nineties, Alisa Barry opened a small café in Atlanta, Georgia called Bella Cucina to share her passion for cooking and her love of Italy. When her loyal customer kept asking for pestos to take home, an artisan food business was born.

Bella Cucina Artful Food is an award-winning product line sold all over the world. With an appreciation for beauty and a sensibility for classic, yet innovative flavors, Bella Cucina makes products by hand, in small batches in the traditional European hand-crafted way. The beauty goes beyond the good taste of the food with an eye for artful and aesthetically arresting packaging.

In recent years, Bella Cucina has grown from an artisan-food company to a complete lifestyle brand that is an authentic artistic expression of its creator, Alisa Barry. Winning numerous prestigious industry awards, Bella Cucina has garnered the attention of the media over the years. A highlight has been a feature on Oprah's most popular "Favorite Things" show {twice!}, O magazine, Food & Wine, Martha Stewart Living, Better Homes & Garden, and Cooking Light.

Bella Cucina Bianco 2011: This small production wine from the Veneto's Soave region of Italy, is made from 100% garganega and was hand selected by Bella Cucina for its purity of fruit and authentic expression of its Veneto terroir. Bella's Soave is light, clean, fresh, and floral with notes of white peach and citrus. Great with all seafood, light pastas, caprese salad, asparagus and any array of antipasti.

Bella Cucina Rosso 2010: This small production wine was hand selected by Bella Cucina for its purity of fruit and authentic expression of Tuscan Terroir. Passion for sustainable farming and a true "sense of place goes into every sip. A versatile wine, medium bodied, warm and spicy with notes of black cherries and plums.

Enjoy these wines anytime and anywhere good friends gather!
